KARL'S KORNER

Every three months when I work on the tours for the new catalog, I get as excited as if I were going on all of the tours and cruises. Because I personally love exotic destinations, our first ever India tour (pages 14-15) is especially seductive. However, I will defer to Sun Tours tour director and India expert, Dr. Ned O'Malia, who will lead this fascinating tour.

This catalog also contains our upcoming holiday tours. This year we will go to The Broadmoor in Colorado Springs for Thanksgiving instead of for Christmas. A brand-new Christmas tour is the Gaylord Texan Christmas. The Gaylord Texan, located north of Dallas, is a sister property to the Opryland Hotel and is similar in scope. We have a great program of activities planned there. Our other Christmas tour is to San Diego and the Hotel del Coronado. It was so popular in 2008 that we are bringing it back.

This year we will have three ways to see the Rose Parade! The 3-day Rose Parade Highlights flies to Los Angeles. The 6-day Rose Parade & Southern California goes by bus and includes the historic Mission Inn in Riverside. The Rose Parade & Mexico Cruise tour adds a 7-night cruise to Cabo San Lucas, Mazatlan, and Puerto Vallarta on the Mariner of the Seas to the Rose Parade activities. As our client, Olivia P. said on her evaluation, "The Rose Parade is a once in a lifetime experience."

Galveston with Dickens on the Strand is back! This tour sold out in 2008. Then hurricane Ike hit and our tour washed away. Now Galveston is back on track and so is our tour.

There are also lots of new cruises to check out. It's not too early to plan your getaway from next winter's cold.

Happy Trails,

Karl
