DAY 1 FLY TO DALLAS / CITY TOUR D

We fly to Dallas where our "exuberant" guide shows us her city. We see Dealey Plaza, the old Texas School Book Depository and JFK Memorial. We stop at Pioneer Plaza to see a bronze depiction of a cattle drive and at the Dallas Farmers Market. After seeing the sights of Dallas we drive to Grapevine and the Gaylord Texan where we lodge three nights. Tonight we attend "Home for the Holidays," a Broadway-style musical Christmas stage show presented at the Palace Arts Center in Grapevine.

DAY 2 COWBOY STADIUM / GRAPEVINE L,D

This morning we tour the new Dallas Cowboys stadium, the biggest (3 million square feet), and most expensive ($1.2 billion) stadium ever built. We get behind-the-scenes access to locker rooms, private club, and playing field. Back in Grapevine we have a short city tour, enjoy lunch, and have time to explore the charm of downtown Grapevine. Tonight at the hotel, we enjoy a Murder Mystery Dinner Theater.

DAY 3 CHRISTMAS DAY AT HOTEL L

The Gaylord Texan is especially beautiful at Christmastime. Dozens of lavish holiday displays inside the resort and across the surrounding campus showcase 1.5 million lights, 5,600 feet of garland, 2,300 wreaths, and 10,000 ornaments. Christmas Brunch today is a grand holiday feast served in the elegant Texan Ballroom. Every year a group of master ice carvers from Harbin, China spends a month of 12-hour shifts inside a 9-degree freezer, transforming two million pounds of ice into a breathtaking winter wonderland for the ICE exhibit at our hotel. The beauty and artistry of these ice sculptures is astonishing.

GAYLORD TEXAN

Texas' version of the Opryland Hotel, the Gaylord Texan, is the pride of Texas. It overlooks beautiful Lake Grapevine north of Dallas. Brimming with authentic Texas style and hospitality, the awe-inspiring Gaylord Texan Hotel and Convention Center invites you to experience the energy and excitement of the Lone Star State. Explore 4½ acres of indoor gardens and winding waterways, now all decked out for Christmas.

DAY 4 FORT WORTH / FLY HOME

Our local guide joins us to show us Fort Worth with its charming blend of the Wild West and modern cultures. In the Stockyards, an authentic Old West District that was once the largest livestock market in the world, we see a live re-enactment of a cattle drive with real Texas longhorn cattle parading down the main street. We also see the modern downtown with Sundance Square, the Water Gardens and the Sid Richardson Museum of Western Art. After our Fort Worth tour we return to the Dallas airport for our flight home.
