

Magical INDIA

February 9 - 24, 2011

16 Days

New Tour!

Travelers have been captivated since early times by India's awesome diversity of cultures, landscapes, and peoples. It is a feast for the senses; where the air is heavy with the scent of jasmine and dancers trail frenetic melodies in colorful silk saris. India's cooks compose dishes from a palette of exotic spices that may leave a lingering taste of saffron or aniseed. India amazes, humbles, awes, frustrates, and intimidates — all on the same day. It is home to some of the world's most spectacular medieval structures, sacred rivers, deeply religious rituals, aristocratic tigers, jewel-encrusted tombs, and ancient traditions. There is so much to take in. This tour captures the sights, sounds, and smells of this magical country in the company of an outstanding Indian guide and our Sun Tours escort, Dr. Ned O'Malia.

Ned O'Malia, Ph.D.

Dr. Ned O'Malia with Indian Friend

Sun Tours' tour leader is Dr. Ned O'Malia, whose Ph.D. is in Asian Religions and Culture. He has been teaching India's culture and religion for over 30 years. Ned has traveled through India five times. Last year Ned took 16 of his college students to India for a month to study the religions of India: Hinduism, Buddhism, Islam, and Jainism. He has also guided a Washington press photographer through north India. Ned's best description of India is "so much," — so much color, so much sound, so much music, so much ritual, so many people. All this "so much" makes India the most memorable country Ned has ever visited and why he keeps going back. Ned says that visiting India will be the most exciting tour that you have ever taken with Sun Tours.
