PORTS OF CALL

NAPLES / CAPRI

The enchanting Bay of Naples has lured tourists for centuries. Besides the city of Naples, nearby attractions include the ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum, Sorrento and the Amalfi Drive, and the Isle of Capri. Capri (reached by ferry) is famed for its turquoise water, beautiful flowers, and unusual limestone formations.

SANTORINI, GREECE

Perched atop steep hills, the dazzling white-washed houses of Fira greet the ship as it approaches Santorini. Take an optional shore excursion to Akrotiri on the southern end of the island. Here, a recent excavation has revealed the remains of a 4,000-year-old Minoan city buried in lava, which some believe is part of the legendary Atlantis. Or journey to the cliff-top village of Thera, which offers one of the world's most breathtaking panoramas.

RHODES, GREECE

The Acropolis of Lindos and the Temple of Athena crown this warm, sunny, myth-shrouded island, the largest of Greece's Dodecanese Islands. Rhodes has ancient ruins, medieval monuments, picturesque mountain villages, and fine beaches. Stroll through winding streets of the walled Medieval City. Visit Crusader fortresses and the Temple of Athena in the ancient Doric city of Lindos.

EPHESUS (Kusadasi), TURKEY

Explore the incredible ruins of Ephesus, mighty city of the Romans and one of the world's most spectacular archaeological sites. Stroll marble avenues where St. Paul once preached, avenues lined with ruins of homes, libraries, and baths over 2,000 years old. Ephesus is where St. John wrote the gospel, and the Virgin Mary died.

Mykonos windmills

MYKONOS, GREECE

The mystique of this island of clear light, bright flowers on whitewashed walls, and aquamarine water is timeless. Here you can roam the perfect beaches, see sun-splashed windmills, and fine shops galore along cobblestone streets. The ancient archaeological site of Delos can be visited on an adjacent island.

Parthenon on the Acropolis

ATHENS (Piraeus), GREECE

Classical Greek temples, Roman arches, and Byzantine churches reflect this city's long and glorious history as the fountain-head of much of Western civilization. The awesome Acropolis, Athens' crowning glory, continues to inspire. The Plaka (Old Town) is the fun place to shop and see exuberant Athens.

Mediterranean Cruise

OLYMPIA (Katakolon), GREECE

Katakolon is the nearest port to Olympia, where the ancient athletic games were held 2,700 years ago. The Stadium, Gymnasium, Statue of Hermes, Temples of Zeus and Hera, and the excellent Museum are highlights.

CORFU, GREECE

Corfu is an island that tourists have enjoyed since the voyages of Odysseus. Colorful villages perch on its hills, peering down through the olive groves to the chic resorts of this greenest of Greek Isles. Stroll through the gardens of Achilleion Palace, see the silver coffin of St. Spyridon, the island's patron saint, or simply explore the city's Venetian architecture.

DUBROVNIK, CROATIA

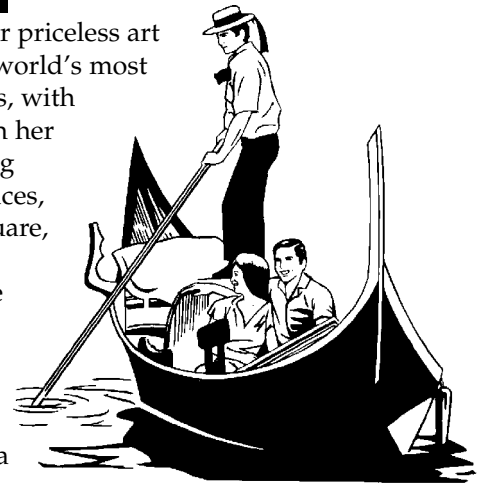

This jewel of a walled city has ancient fortifications that rise dramatically from the Adriatic Sea and a perfectly preserved Old Town of narrow cobbled streets. Dubrovnik is truly the best preserved medieval city in Europe.
