PORTS OF CALL

BAY OF ISLANDS, NEW ZEALAND This glorious part of New Zealand's far north offers broad skies, tranquil bays and numerous aquatic and cultural activities. The Bay of Islands has been a center of Maori culture for centuries, with whalers, missionaries, and early settlers also leaving their stamp.

AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND Shop along the picturesque waterfront of this exciting city, home to one-third of the country's population. From museums housing Maori artifacts to extinct volcanic peaks, this pedestrian-friendly city is the perfect combination of nature and commerce. Shore excursions feature a glow-worm grotto, rain forest walk, and more.

TAURANGA, NEW ZEALAND Miles of white sandy beach welcome us to Tauranga, one of the sunniest cities in New Zealand. Just an hour away is Rotorua, famous for its Thermal Reserve and aboriginal Maori culture. Don't miss the Maori Arts & Crafts Center, Rainbow Springs (to see a kiwi!), and the Agrodome sheep show.

NAPIER, NEW ZEALAND Leveled in 1931 by a magnitude 7.8 quake, Napier rebuilt itself in the art deco architectural style popular in the 1930s. Napier is the hub of a fertile region and is close to the gannet bird colony at Cape Kidnappers.

WELLINGTON, NEW ZEALAND From the top of Mt. Victoria, New Zealand's capital lies at your feet. It is a stunning vista of forested peninsulas, with a bustling waterfront, dramatic cliff-side homes and fine Victorian architecture. Wellington is also home to many museums, gardens, winding streets, an 1866 Victorian cathedral, and even a cable car.

CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND "The most English city outside England," Christchurch shows off her stately buildings, colorful gardens, the Avon River flowing through Hagley Park, the Anglican Cathedral, and Victoria Square.

DUNEDIN, NEW ZEALAND Scottish heritage can be seen in the architecture of Dunedin's early homes. The nearby Otago Peninsula has an abundance of wildlife, including sea birds, fur seals, and penguins.

FJORDLAND NATIONAL PARK, NEW ZEALAND As we cruise through Milford, Doubtful, Breaksea, and Dusky Sounds, we see some of the most stunning scenery in the world. These are fjords whose towering cliffs feature many spectacular waterfalls.
