Caribbean & Bermuda

with Charleston & Williamsburg
on Oceania's Regatta

This fascinating new itinerary features some of our favorite places: Charleston is always a delight but especially in the spring. Williamsburg is a fascinating restored Colonial city near Jamestown, Yorktown, and Norfolk. Bermuda is an island paradise in the Atlantic. In the Caribbean we call at San Juan, Puerto Rico; Grand Turk; and Callo Levantado, Dominican Republic, the favorite port on our recent Oceania Caribbean cruise. All the while we are immersed in luxury on Oceania's deluxe ship, the Regatta.

THE SHIP

The Regatta, launched in 2003, carries just 684 passengers with a crew of over 400. The atmosphere is elegant yet casual. There are no formal nights! The service and the cuisine, overseen by famed chef Jacques Pepin, are on par with luxury lines costing twice as much. It's the best value in luxury cruising.
