$969.00 Single Occupancy

DAY 1 DURANGO / MONTROSE

We cross the picturesque desert landscape of northwestern New Mexico, then enter Colorado via Durango. The drive through the heart of the San Juan Mountains from Durango to Ouray rewards us with splendors of aspen color. The "Million Dollar" highway over Red Mountain Pass is especially dramatic. One night's lodging in Montrose.

DAY 2 BLACK CANYON / ASPEN

CB

At the Black Canyon of the Gunnison, one of the narrowest clefts in the earth's surface, we peer into the depth (2,700 ft.) of dark Precambrian rock. We cross McClure Pass, visit the one-time model industrial village of Redstone and reach Aspen where we lodge two nights at the Hotel Jerome in the historic downtown area.

Sept. 27 - Oct. 1, 2009

5 Days

HOTEL JEROME

The Hotel Jerome is an award-winning RockResort nestled in the heart of Aspen. It has indulged guests since 1889 with relaxed elegance, personalized service, and exceptional accommodations and amenities.

DAY 3 ASPEN

On our excursion to Maroon Bells Lake we see one of America's most photographed landscapes. Aspen's original structures from the 1880's now house fashionable shops and restaurants. Towering over everything are mountains on all sides. After our morning excursion we are free to stroll the car-free streets, visit the fashionable shops, lounge at a sidewalk cafe and soak in Aspen's European charm.

DAY 4 LEADVILLE / GUNNISON

En route to Leadville we see the Colorado River at Glenwood Springs and cross high mountain passes. In Leadville, Colorado's most famous mining town, we visit Baby Doe Tabor's Matchless Mine and Cabin, the Healy House built in the 1880s and historic downtown Leadville. We cross Monarch Pass and lodge in Gunnison for one night.

DAY 5 CREEDE / HOME

We pass Lake City and climb over Slumgullion Pass to reach Creede, whose silver mines are active again. We return home via the San Luis Valley, having seen the best of Colorado.
