

VERMONT, MAINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Fall Foliage

White church steeples, rippling streams, rugged seacoast, mighty mountains, marble, maple sugaring, and fall foliage. This is New England. Red, yellow, brown, and green leaves create a crazy-quilt patchwork of color, covering the hills and valleys. Each day is filled with sightseeing and attractions. If you like quaint, cozy, and colorful, this is the New England Fall Foliage tour for you.

October 4 - 11, 2009

8 Days

DAY 1 HOME / NEW HAMPSHIRE

We fly to Manchester, New Hampshire, and drive to Portsmouth, where we lodge one night.

DAY 2 PORTSMOUTH / KENNEBUNKPORT

CB

Portsmouth was settled as Strawberry Banke in 1630 and became an important ship building center. We tour Strawberry Banke Museum, a waterfront neighborhood of homes built in the 18th and 19th centuries. We then drive into Maine to Kennebunkport, a seaside resort town. Our sightseeing tour features the rugged Maine coastline, beaches, sea captains' homes, George H. W. Bush's summer home, and St. Anthony's Monastery. There is time to peruse the shops in downtown Kennebunkport or just relax at our hotel which is situated on a rocky promontory above the Atlantic Ocean.

DAY 3 PORTLAND

B,D

Nearby Portland has lots to see and do. A narrated cruise includes islands and forts, as well as the waterside view of Portland's harbor. The Old Port Exchange, built in Victorian style, is picturesque, historic, and a fun place to shop. The 200-year-old Wadsworth - Longfellow House features the original furnishings of this famous family. We leave Portland, crossing fields and forests to our lodgings (two nights) near Conway, New Hampshire.

Vermont, Maine, NH

DAY 4 NEW HAMPSHIRE

B,D

The White Mountains of New Hampshire are bursting with color. Our full day of sightseeing begins on the famous Kancamagus Highway, where we see gorgeous fall foliage, photograph a covered bridge, and walk along a babbling brook in the Rocky Gorge Scenic Area. We view the Mt. Washington Hotel in Bretton Woods before returning to our lodgings.

DAY 5 VERMONT / CALVIN COOLIDGE

B

We cross the White Mountains and the Connecticut River to reach Vermont. Quechee Gorge is an impressive sight. We enjoy free time in Woodstock, the "quintessential New England village." There is a covered bridge in the middle of town and stately homes surrounding the village green. At Plymouth Notch we visit the birthplace, boyhood home, and grave of Calvin Coolidge. The village, though one hundred years old, is in a perfect state of preservation and allows us to recall a simpler era. Two nights' lodging in Rutland.

A Covered Bridge in Vermont

DAY 7 HILDENE / BENNINGTON

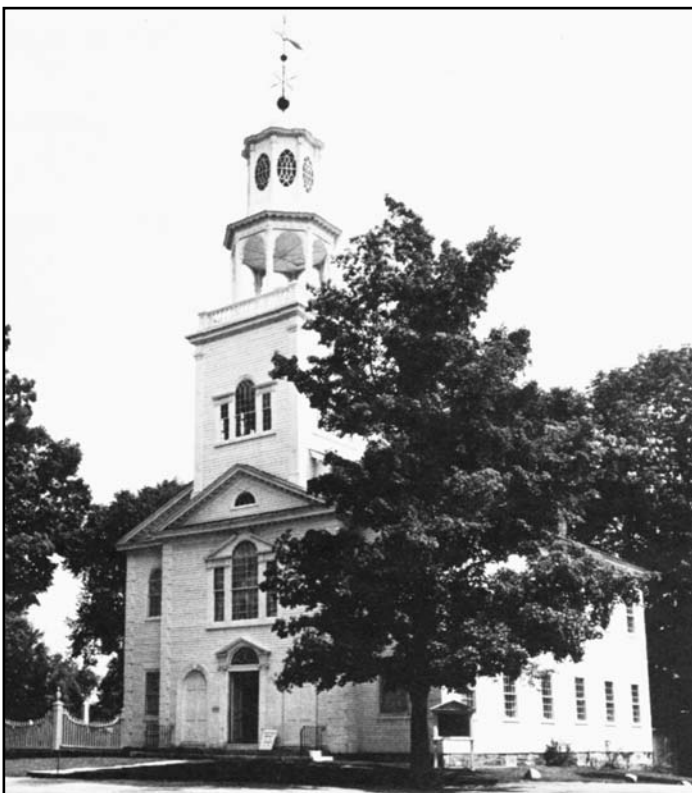

CB,L,D

At the Norman Rockwell Museum of Vermont, we see over 2,500 illustrations that Norman Rockwell created for America's magazines. Then we drive to Manchester, Vermont, to see Hildene, Robert Todd Lincoln's home. It is an impressive mansion that still houses all the family's original furnishings. In historic Bennington we visit Old First Church, the Bennington Monument, and the Bennington Museum, which features paintings by Grandma Moses. We cross beautiful southern Vermont to reach Keene, New Hampshire where we lodge one night.

DAY 8 NEW HAMPSHIRE / HOME

CB

Our tour of New England's spectacular fall foliage comes to an end, as we transfer to the Manchester airport for our flight home.

The Old First Church in Bennington

DAY 6 CENTRAL VERMONT / FORT T.

CB

Our excursion through central Vermont includes some of Vermont's prettiest scenery and most interesting attractions. The New England Maple Museum explains the process of making maple syrup. At the Marble Exhibit of the Vermont Marble Museum, we learn how marble is formed and processed. We drive to Fort Ticonderoga in New York State. The reconstructed fort recalls the time when Ethan Allen's Green Mountain Boys captured it in 1775. We drive through the Green Mountains for more leaf peeping, then return to Rutland to our hotel.
