PER PERSON PRICE:

$845.00 Double Occupancy
 $1,177.00 Single Occupancy

DAY 1 ALBUQUERQUE / MOAB, UTAH

We drive across the colorful landscape of northwestern New Mexico and past the high mountains of Utah to reach Moab, where we lodge two nights.

DAY 2 ARCHES / CANYONLANDS CB

Arches National Park has over 100 natural stone arches. During our morning in the park we learn how nature created the arches and visit some of the finer specimens. This afternoon we drive to the heart of Canyonlands National Park, the Island in the Sky. From here we see broad vistas across canyon after canyon, with the Colorado and Green Rivers in the deepest depths. From Dead Horse Point we look way down to a gooseneck on the Colorado River.

DAY 3 CAPITOL REEF / SCENIC DRIVE CB,L

We drive to Capitol Reef National Park which protects a 100-mile-long wrinkle in the earth's crust called the Waterpocket Fold. We learn how the fold was formed and see man's few imprints on this stark land. We then follow Highway 12, one of Utah's most scenic routes, through Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument to Bryce Canyon, where we lodge one night.

September 20 - 25, 2010

6 Days

DAY 4 BRYCE CANYON / ZION L

Bryce Canyon National Park includes some of the earth's most colorful rocks, shaped by erosion into fantastic forms. Besides seeing the countless, weirdly-shaped rock formations in Bryce Amphitheater, we drive along the rim road for additional dramatic vistas. Then Zion National Park welcomes us with checkered mountains and overwhelms us with its massive vertical canyon walls towering over the narrow Virgin River Canyon. One night's lodging just outside Zion Park.

DAY 5 GRAND CANYON NORTH RIM

We leave Utah behind, as we cross into Arizona en route to the North Rim of the Grand Canyon. This world wonder needs no introduction but must be seen to be appreciated. The North Rim has the beautiful views without the crowds of the South Rim. We drive to Point Imperial and Cape Royal, then enjoy free time at the Grand Canyon North Rim Lodge (at Bright Angel Point) where we lodge one night.

DAY 6 NORTH RIM / ALBUQUERQUE

We descend the Kaibab Plateau, then cross the Colorado River and the colorful landscape of the Navajo and Hopi reservations. After a short visit to the Hopi Cultural Center, we continue eastbound – home to Albuquerque.
