

COSTA RICA PANAMA & Transcanal Cruise

On a small ship, the Pacific Explorer

Explore lush, tropical forests filled with wildlife, and drop anchor at pristine, offshore islands without docks—or even people! Visit a traditional native culture in Panama's Darién Jungle. Swim, snorkel, and kayak off some of the most spectacular tropical beaches anywhere on earth. Do all this from the comfort of the Pacific Explorer, a small ship that brings us close to shore and to wildlife in a casual and personal style.

CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

- Naturalist-led walk through the jungle for outstanding wildlife viewing at Manuel Antonio Park.
- Discover a pristine rainforest populated by many endangered species at the Corcovado Conservation Area where over 400 species of birds have been seen.
- Tour the Orchid House Gardens then search for wildlife at Golfo Dulce.
- Coiba National Park has two days' worth of exciting activities. Swim, snorkel, and kayak in pristine waters with sea life.
- Explore the Darién Jungle and visit an Embera Village where the people welcome us into their homes.
- Transit the Panama Canal, an unforgettable experience, especially aboard a small ship.
- In Portobelo enjoy a guided walk, a dance performance by Kuna Indians, and an old Spanish fort.
- Enrichment programs on board and off feature Cruise West Exploration Leaders.
