

GRAND CANYON and SEDONA

This perennial favorite offers two fantastic attractions. Peer into the depths of the amazing Grand Canyon. Then, descend through the lush gorges of Oak Creek Canyon to vistas of Sedona's towering red rock formations.

PER PERSON PRICE:

$535.00 Double Occupancy

$695.00 Single Occupancy

DAY 1 ALBUQUERQUE / FLAGSTAFF

Canyon country, here we come! We drive west to the pine country of Flagstaff, making stops at the beautiful Painted Desert and the fascinating Petrified Forest. We lodge three nights in Flagstaff at the Drury Inn & Suites.

DAY 2 GRAND CANYON

B

We drive to the Grand Canyon, a powerful and inspiring landscape that overwhelms our senses through its immense size and sublime beauty. At Grand Canyon Village we savor our first view of the canyon. Later, at the Visitor Center we see the wonderful movie, "Grand Canyon: A Journey of Wonder," and walk to nearby Mather Point. We ride our motorcoach along the East Rim Drive to additional vistas including Desert View where we see the Colorado River far below. We then return to Flagstaff.

DAY 3 SEDONA / OAK CREEK / JEROME

B

We take the scenic route to Sedona through stunning Oak Creek Canyon, a breathtaking chasm that is wildly wonderful. From pine forests we cross the Mogollon Rim into red rock country. Then we ride the Sedona Trolley for a tour of the area featuring the Chapel of the Holy Cross. We also enjoy the ambiance of Tlaquepaque Arts and Crafts Village and downtown Sedona. We continue on to Jerome, an old copper-mining town and its Douglas Mansion State Park before returning to our hotel. After dark we visit the Lowell Observatory. If skies are clear, we look through the telescope that discovered the "planet" Pluto.

DAY 4 FLAGSTAFF / ALBUQUERQUE

B

After seeing the fascinating exhibits of the Museum of Northern Arizona, we say goodbye to the pine trees of the high country and enjoy our scenic ride back to Albuquerque.

Optional train ride to the Grand Canyon

Ride from Williams to Grand Canyon Village aboard the Grand Canyon Railway's restored coach cars behind a classic diesel locomotive.
