

TULIP TIME & Indiana Amish

This was our mystery tour in 2009 and Sun Tours clients loved it! We meet descendants of the Dutch and Amish settlers who have kept their traditions alive. We enjoy great attractions, home-cooked meals, and the 82nd Holland Tulip Time Festival.

PER PERSON PRICE:

$1,676.00 Double Occupancy
$2,072.00 Single Occupancy

DAY 1 FLY TO CHICAGO / HOLLAND, MICHIGAN

We fly to Chicago and drive around the southern tip of Lake Michigan to reach Holland Michigan where we lodge three nights.

DAY 2 HOLLAND TOUR / TULIPS / KLOMPENS CB,L

Our local guide introduces us to Holland which was settled by Dutch immigrants in 1847. It's an All-American City with a Dutch accent. We drive along six miles of tulip lanes as we tour the downtown. After a church lunch we see the tulip fields at Veldheer Tulip Gardens. Tonight we go to Centennial Park where many hundreds of locals (Klomp Dancers) dressed in Dutch costumes and wearing wooden shoes dance in procession along the streets.

DAY 3 WINDMILL ISLAND / VOLKSPARADE CB,D

We tour Windmill Island which features an imported Dutch windmill originally built in the 1780s—that still works! This afternoon the Volksparade begins with hundreds of street scrubbers followed by dozens of colorful floats and local bands. Dutch dance groups also "Klomp" along the route in authentic Dutch costumes. The Dutch Heritage Show tonight features over 50 enthusiastic performers presenting vignettes of life in Holland with song and dance.

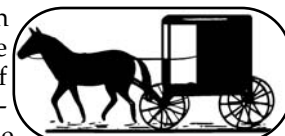

May 9 - 15, 2011
7 Days

DAY 4 NOTRE DAME / ESSENHAUS CB,L,D

We drive to South Bend Indiana, home of the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame. A student guide shows us the venerable campus including the Main Quadrangle, the Basilica & Grotto, the Library, and the Golden Dome. Then we join the students for lunch in the dining hall. Dessert is at the South Bend Chocolate Factory where we have a tour and tasting. At the Studebaker National Museum we see a priceless collection of carriages and motor vehicles built by Studebaker here in South Bend for almost 200 years. We lodge for three nights at Das Dutchman Essenhaus in Middlebury, Indiana.

DAY 5 AMISH / ELKHART CB,D

At the Menno-Hof Mennonite-Amish Visitors Center in Shipshewana we learn about the life and beliefs of these religious communities and discover a slow-paced way of life that the Amish still enjoy. The nearby Ruthmere Museum is a magnificently restored Beaux Arts mansion built in 1910 that gives us a glimpse into the lives of the super rich of a century ago. After free time to enjoy the ambiance of our unique hotel, we drive to the home of Carolyn & Henry Yoder for a cooking demonstration and a traditional Amish home-cooked meal. Buggy ride anyone?

DAY 6 AMISH AREA TOUR / AMISH ACRES CB,L

Our guide for Amish country is Esther, a native of the area, who knows the Amish and their way of life. She shows us the Amish countryside and takes us to a working Amish farm. We enjoy a hearty "Thresher's" lunch at Amish Acres, an 80-acre Amish farm with a farmstead built in 1874 by the descendants of Indiana's first Amish settlers. Here we also see an orientation film, tour the house & farm, and ride a farm wagon.

DAY 7 DRIVE TO CHICAGO / FLY HOME CB

It's been great getting to know the people of Holland, Michigan and Amish Country. Now it's time to return to Chicago and fly home with all the warm memories that we have gathered.
