

SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco is America's most beloved city – cosmopolitan, colorful and cultured, with Chinatown and cable cars. We experience the sights and spirits of this very proud city. The excursions to Carmel, Monterey, Muir Woods, Sausalito, and the Napa and Sonoma Valleys round out this San Francisco experience. From our hotel, located in the heart of the Fisherman's Wharf area, the shopping, attractions, and excitement are near at hand.

DAY 1 HOME / HARBOR CRUISE

CB

We fly to San Francisco and start our sightseeing at Pier 39 with a San Francisco Bay cruise that takes us under the Golden Gate Bridge and past Alcatraz Island and the San Francisco waterfront. After an orientation drive we settle in at our Fisherman's Wharf hotel where we lodge six nights.

DAY 2 CITY TOUR / FREE TIME

CB

On our morning city tour we discover the many facets of San Francisco: Chinatown, Nob Hill, the Civic Center, Seal Rocks, Golden Gate Park, and a view of it all from Twin Peaks. The afternoon is free to enjoy San Francisco's ambiance and attractions. How about a cable car ride to Union Square?

DAY 3 MONTEREY / CARMEL / 17-MILE DRIVE

CB,D

A rocky coastline with cypress tree silhouettes is the trademark of the Monterey Peninsula. The pink and purple ice plants, the sea birds, and sea lions create unforgettable images. Cannery Row in Monterey, Pebble Beach's 17-Mile Drive, Carmel Mission and downtown Carmel are all delightful and unique attractions.

DAY 4 MUIR WOODS / WALT DISNEY MUSEUM

CB

We cross the Golden Gate Bridge into Marin County to reach Muir Woods National Monument where redwood trees reach the heavens. Sausalito provides shopping and vistas across the Bay. We cross the Golden Gate Bridge to the Presidio where we tour the fantastic new Walt Disney Family Museum that presents Walt Disney, the man.

DAY 5 SAN FRANCISCO FREE DAY

CB

San Francisco offers a cornucopia of delightful possibilities on our full free day in San Francisco.

DAY 6 SONOMA & NAPA VALLEYS

CB,D

Napa and Sonoma Valleys are famous not only for their high-quality wines, but also for their lovely scenery. After visiting the canine students at the heartwarming Guide Dogs for the Blind, we have free time in Sonoma, a historic town that has retained much of its original charm and beauty. Then we visit a Napa Valley winery where we first learn how wines are made, then sample the fruit of the vine. We return to San Francisco for seafood dinner at Fisherman's Wharf.

DAY 7 DE YOUNG MUSEUM / FLIGHT HOME

CB

We visit the de Young Museum which has reopened in a new building to showcase its world-class collections of American art, African art and Native American arts, crafts, and artifacts. We then transfer to the airport for our flight home carrying memories of America's favorite city. As Rudyard Kipling said, "San Francisco has only one drawback—'tis hard to leave."
