

MOAB ADVENTURE at the Red Cliffs Lodge

Moab is in the heart of one of America's most scenic regions. The scenery is wide-open and spectacular. We see the beauty on a jet boat, on an expedition vehicle, and on foot with options for rafting and horseback riding. The key to our adventure is our home at the Red Cliffs Lodge, set on the Colorado River.

RED CLIFFS LODGE

The inspiration for this tour came from Sun Tours clients who stayed at the Red Cliffs Lodge for just one night on our tours in 2007. They loved the Red Cliffs Lodge and wanted much more time there. Here is what Dorothy G. wrote: "The Red Cliffs Lodge was a highlight of the tour, not only because of the well-appointed décor and complete comfort of my room, but also because of the fantastic setting of cliffs and river just outside my private veranda. What a Spot!"

DAY 3 JET BOAT ON COLORADO / "JEEP" RIDE B

We drive downstream along the Colorado to Potash Dock where we board our jet boat for an exciting (but dry) 2 hour ride. We reach the goose neck below Dead Horse Point before returning to the dock. Then we board 4-wheel-drive vehicles and take back roads up to the top of the canyon. From Dead Horse Point we look down to the river where we had cruised earlier. After exploring and shopping in downtown Moab, we return to our lodgings in mid afternoon.

DAY 4 RED CLIFFS LODGE FREE DAY B,D

The Red Cliffs Lodge is a great place to relax and enjoy nature. The adventurous amongst us can take an optional morning rafting trip (about $40.00 per person) on the Colorado River. Activities available at the lodge include horseback riding (additional cost), wine tasting, and hiking. Also on site is the Moab Museum of Film & Western Heritage which features "100 years of cowboy history."

DAY 5 MOAB / HOME B

We pass Utah's La Sal Mountains and Colorado's San Juan Mountains to reach New Mexico. The Shiprock, sailing in the desert, welcomes us home.
