DAY 1 HOME / LOS ANGELES / LONG BEACH

We fly to Los Angeles and drive to Long Beach where we visit the Rancho los Alamitos. Here the story of Southern California unfolds as we tour the adobe ranch house, built around 1800, and explore four acres of historic gardens. We lodge two nights in Long Beach.

DAY 2 CATALINA ISLAND

B

We board a fast ferry for the 22-mile crossing to Avalon on Catalina Island. We walk from the pier to the heart of Avalon where cars are banned. This romantic resort town has excitement in the air and lots of fun things to do. We have free time to soak in the beauty, enjoy the ambiance, shop and explore this afternoon before we sail back to Long Beach.

DAY 3 REAGAN LIBRARY / AUTRY MUSEUM

B

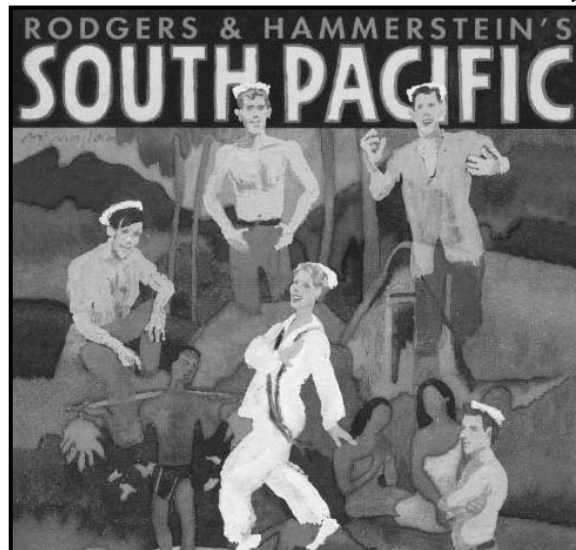

We drive from Long Beach to Simi Valley and the Reagan Presidential Library. This impressive facility, situated on a hilltop overlooking the Pacific Ocean, houses both the memorabilia of President Reagan's life and his Air Force One. The Autry Museum of the American West presents the history of the American West and its depiction by Hollywood. We view Billy the Kid's gun, Wyatt Earp's badge, 40,000 other artifacts, original costumes and props. We lodge two nights in Los Angeles.

DAY 4 LA CITY TOUR / SOUTH PACIFIC

B,D

We tour Los Angeles to see downtown's skyscrapers, Hollywood's footprints and stars in the sidewalks, Beverly Hills and Rodeo Drive, Chinatown, and much more. After a fun stop at the Farmer's Market, we enjoy the Petersen Automotive Museum which tells the story of the automobile and its influence on our culture and our lives. The cars are fantastic! Dinner is at the San Antonio Winery and Maddalena Restaurant, a Los Angeles tradition since 1917. Then we drive to the Ahmanson Theater to see South Pacific.

DAY 5 GETTY CENTER / FLY HOME

We drive to the Getty Center, a billion-dollar 100-acre complex located on a mountaintop overlooking Los Angeles. This museum sets the standard for world-class museums for the next millennium. Five pavilions of exhibits feature some of the world's finest paintings, sculptures, and decorative art. There is something for everyone. Then we transfer to the Los Angeles Airport for our flight home.
